FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP (“Simpson Thacher” or the “Firm”), special counsel to Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (“LBHI”) and its subsidiaries that are debtors and debtors in possession in these proceedings (collectively, the “Debtors”), for its Fourth Interim Application (the “Application”), pursuant to sections 330(a) and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), for allowance of compensation for professional services performed by Simpson Thacher during the period commencing February 1, 2010, through and including May 31, 2010 (the “Compensation Period”), and for reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, respectfully represents:

Background

1. Commencing on September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (as applicable, the “Commencement Date”), the Debtors commenced with this Court voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed a statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Creditors’ Committee”).

3. On January 19, 2009, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as examiner in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the “Examiner”) and by order, dated January 20, 2009 [Docket No. 2583], the Court approved the U.S. Trustee’s appointment of the Examiner.

4. On May 26, 2009, the Court appointed a fee committee (the “Fee Committee”) and approved a fee protocol (the “Fee Protocol”) in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases pursuant to an order of the same date [Docket No. 3651].

Jurisdiction

5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Lehman's Business

6. Prior to the events leading up to these chapter 11 cases, Lehman was the fourth largest investment bank in the United States. For more than 150 years, Lehman has been a leader in the global financial markets by serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients and individuals worldwide.

7. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structures, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T. Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed on September 15, 2008 [Docket No. 2].

Retention of Simpson Thacher

8. By an order dated November 21, 2008 [Docket No. 1658] (the "Retention Order"), the Court approved the application dated November 3, 2008 filed by the Debtors seeking authorization pursuant to section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date to employ Simpson Thacher as special counsel to the Debtors for certain non-bankruptcy related postpetition corporate and litigation matters (the "Retention Application") [Docket No. 1352]. These matters are more fully described in the Affidavit of Mary Elizabeth McGarry dated October 31, 2008 (the "Retention Affidavit"), submitted as Exhibit A to the Retention Application, and the Affidavit of Mary Elizabeth McGarry dated November 18, 2008 (the "Supplemental Retention Affidavit"), submitted to the Court on November 18, 2008 in connection with the Retention Application [Docket No. 1588]. By an order dated April 9, 2009 [Docket No. 3315] (the "First Expansion Order"), the Court approved

Summary of Requested Professional Compensation
And Reimbursement of Expenses

9. This Application has been prepared in accordance with (a) the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the "Local Guidelines" ), (b) the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 adopted on January 30, 1996 (the "UST Guidelines" ), (c) the Third Amended Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) Establishing Procedures for Interim Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals entered by the Court on June 25, 2009 (the “Interim Compensation Order”) and (d) the Fee Protocol (collectively with the Local Guidelines, the UST Guidelines and the Interim Compensation Order, the “Guidelines”).

10. Simpson Thacher previously requested compensation from the Court for professional services and reimbursement of expenses in its First Interim Fee Application dated April 10, 2009 (the “First Interim Fee Application”), the Second Interim Fee Application dated August 13, 2009 (the “Second Interim Fee Application”), the Third Interim Fee Application dated December 14, 2009 (the “Third Interim Fee Application”) and the Fourth Interim Fee Application dated April 16, 2010 (the “Fourth Interim Fee Application”). On August 5, 2009, the Court approved Simpson Thacher’s First Interim Fee Application, subject to a 10% holdback, which holdback the Court ordered with respect to all retained professionals. On September 25, 2009, the Court approved Simpson Thacher’s Second Interim Fee Application, subject to a 10% holdback, which holdback the Court ordered with respect to all retained professionals. On September 25, 2009 the Court also approved the release of the 10% holdback for the First Interim Fee Application, subject to certain reductions recommended by the Fee Committee. On December 23, 2009, the Court approved the release of the 10% holdback for the Second Interim Fee Application, subject to certain reductions recommended by the Fee Committee. On April 9, 2010, the Court approved Simpson Thacher’s Third Interim Fee Application, subject to certain reductions recommended by the Fee Committee. The Court has not yet entered an order approving the Fourth Interim Fee Application.

11. By this Application, Simpson Thacher seeks allowance in full of interim compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtors during the Compensation Period, in the aggregate amount of $117,433.90, and for reimbursement of actual, necessary expenses incurred in connection with such services in the aggregate amount of $1,797.51. During the Compensation Period, Simpson Thacher attorneys and paraprofessionals/other non-attorney timekeepers expended a total of 266.30 hours for which compensation is sought.

12. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Simpson Thacher has received payments to date totaling $50,909.43 ($50,244.08 of which is for services rendered and $665.35 of which is for reimbursement of expenses) for the February and March 2010 portion of the Compensation Period.<sup>18</sup> By this Application, Simpson Thacher seeks payment of $23,488.78, which amount represents the Court-ordered 20% holdback of all Simpson Thacher requested fees during the Compensation Period.

13. During the Compensation Period, other than pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Simpson Thacher has received no payment and no promises of payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the matters covered by this Application. There is no agreement or understanding between Simpson Thacher and any other person, other than partners of the Firm, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

14. The fees charged by Simpson Thacher in these cases are billed in accordance with its agreed-upon billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates charged by Simpson Thacher for the services rendered in these chapter 11 cases do not (and will not) exceed the rates Simpson Thacher customarily charges for services rendered in comparable matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation

<sup>18</sup> As of the date of this Application, Simpson Thacher had not received payment for any amounts requested in its April 2010 Monthly Statement and May 2010 Monthly Statement. These two monthly statements were prepared and distributed by Simpson Thacher pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order on August 16, 2010. 80% of these April and May 2010 monthly fees and 100% of these April and May 2010 monthly expenses are to be paid in the ordinary course pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order.

charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable assignments in a competitive national legal market.

15. Prior to the filing of this Application, Simpson Thacher sent the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Creditors' Committee and counsel to the Fee Committee monthly fee statements setting forth Simpson Thacher's fees for professional services rendered and expenses incurred beginning on February 1, 2010 through May 31, 2010. In connection with preparing each of the four monthly statements, Simpson Thacher, based on its pre-Commencement Date practice with the Debtors with respect to certain categories of matters and expenses, and based on its understanding of fees and expenses permitted under the Guidelines, voluntarily adjusted its fees and expenses in favor of the estates. Specifically, Simpson Thacher has voluntarily reduced its fees and expenses by approximately $23,941.00 during the Compensation Period.<sup>19</sup>

16. Pursuant to the UST Guidelines, annexed to the U.S. Trustee summary section preceding this Application is a schedule setting forth all Simpson Thacher professionals and paraprofessionals/other non-attorney timekeepers who have performed services in these chapter 11 cases during the Compensation Period, the capacities in which each such individual is employed by Simpson Thacher, the hourly billing rate charged by Simpson Thacher for services performed by such individual, the year in which each professional graduated from law school and the aggregate number of hours expended in this matter and fees billed therefor.

<sup>19</sup> These reduced fees and expenses consist of a 30% discount on overall monthly fees for the General Corporate and Securities Matters (defined below) in accordance with Simpson Thacher's pre-Commencement Date practice with the Debtors, a 30% discount on overall monthly fees for the Marubeni Matter (defined below) in accordance with Simpson Thacher's pre-Commencement Date practice with the Debtors, reductions and write-offs of certain expenses in accordance with Simpson Thacher's pre-Commencement practice with the Debtors, write-offs of amounts billed for word processing and proofreading in accordance with the UST Guidelines, write-offs of amounts for fees and expenses in accordance with Fee Committee guidelines and other voluntary reductions of fees and expenses.

17. Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, a certification regarding compliance with the same is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

18. Annexed hereto as Exhibit B is a schedule specifying the categories of actual, necessary expenses for which Simpson Thacher is seeking reimbursement and the total amount for each such expense category.

19. Pursuant to the UST Guidelines, annexed hereto as Exhibit C is a summary of the number of hours and amounts billed by Simpson Thacher during the Compensation Period, organized by matter.

20. Simpson Thacher maintains computerized records of the time spent by all Simpson Thacher attorneys and paraprofessionals/non-attorney timekeepers in connection with the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.<sup>20</sup>

21. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Compensation Period, but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, Simpson Thacher reserves the right to request compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

<sup>20</sup> Detailed time and expense records are not being publicly filed but are being provided to the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, the Court, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Creditors' Committee and the Fee Committee. Parties in interest required to be served with monthly fee statements pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order have previously received such records. Copies of these records will be made available to other parties in interest upon reasonable request.

Summary of Services

22. The Debtors sought and received the Court's approval to retain Simpson Thacher because of Simpson Thacher's extensive knowledge and experience in representing the Debtors and other LBHI affiliates in various corporate and litigation matters prior to the Commencement Date. Simpson Thacher is a leading global law firm with more than 800 lawyers. The Firm provides coordinated legal advice on the largest and most complex corporate transactions and litigation matters in a variety of industries, including financial services. Simpson Thacher regularly advises clients regarding ongoing disclosure and compliance matters under the U.S. securities laws, and regularly advised the Debtors and their affiliates on these matters for many years. Simpson Thacher is one of the world's preeminent law firms in the mergers and acquisitions field, and is experienced in such transactions within the financial services industry. In addition, Simpson Thacher's litigation professionals frequently represent individuals and business entities in a wide range of litigation matters, including government investigations and proceedings.

23. Simpson Thacher has represented LBHI since its 1994 spin-off from American Express and represented LBHI's predecessors for several decades before 1994. During that time, the Firm has represented LBHI and its affiliates in numerous litigations and corporate transactions and in connection with general corporate and regulatory matters. Over the course of such representation, Simpson Thacher has become uniquely familiar with the business and affairs of these entities.

24. By the Retention Order, the Debtors received the Court's approval to retain Simpson Thacher as special counsel to LBHI pursuant to section 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date, to perform legal services in connection with the following matters: (i) assisting LBHI with ongoing reporting obligations under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and other miscellaneous corporate and securities work (the “Corporate and Securities Matters”), (ii) assisting LBHI with respect to negotiations related to, and the closing of the sale of, the North American investment banking and capital markets businesses of Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LBI”) to Barclays Capital, Inc., (iii) assisting LBHI with respect to the sale of the investment management division of LBI to Bain Capital, LLC and Hellman & Friedman LLC, and (iv) representing LBHI in connection with the testimony of Richard S. Fuld, Jr., Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of LBHI, before Congress, including production of LBHI documents to Congress.

25. In addition, by the Retention Order, the Debtors received the Court’s approval to pay Simpson Thacher’s fees and expenses nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date for Simpson Thacher’s representation of LBA Y.K., a non-debtor indirect subsidiary of LBHI, in a litigation matter in federal district court captioned In the Matter of the Application of LBA Y.K., for an Order, Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1782, to Obtain Discovery from Marubeni America Corp. for Use in an Action Pending in Japan in the Tokyo District Court, Civil Division, Styled LBA Y.K. v. Marubeni Corp., Misc. No. M19-82 (S.D.N.Y.), and the appeal therefrom by Marubeni America Corporation to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit (the “U.S. LBA Action”) (LBA Y.K.’s pending action against Marubeni Corporation in the Tokyo, Japan Civil Court (the “Japan LBA Action”) together with the U.S. LBA Action are the “Marubeni Matter”). In connection with the Marubeni Matter, Simpson Thacher has also coordinated with LBA Y.K.’s attorneys in the Japan LBA Action and assisted in gathering and providing to insurance bond underwriters information concerning this litigation specified under a bond policy issued to LBHI, pursuant to which LBA Y.K. is an insured. According to LBHI, any recovery

LBA Y.K. receives in the Japan LBA Action, and any proceeds received under the bond policy, will be paid to the Debtors. Thus, the Debtors' estates have a common interest with LBA Y.K. in the prosecution of its claims against Marubeni Corporation, and in recovery under the bond policy, as well as a strong interest in ensuring maximum recovery from Marubeni Corporation in the Japan LBA Action and under the bond policy. Prior to the Commencement Date, LBHI paid Simpson Thacher's fees and expenses in connection with these matters.

26. By the First Expansion Order, the Debtors received the Court's approval to expand the scope of Simpson Thacher's retention as special counsel to the Debtors in connection with insurance regulatory advice with respect to insurance company counterparties to derivatives contracts in circumstances where Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP is unable to provide such advice due to conflicts (the "Insurance Matters"). In connection with the Insurance Matters, Simpson Thacher provided insurance regulatory advice to the Debtors with respect to the restructuring of Syncora Guarantee Inc. ("Syncora"), a financial guaranty insurer regulated by the New York State Insurance Department, and the commutation of various Syncora insurance policies insuring derivative contracts held by the Debtors.

27. By the Second Expansion Order, the Debtors received the Court's approval to expand the scope of Simpson Thacher's retention as special counsel to the Debtors in connection with the representation of LBHI, in coordination with Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP, with matters related to the formation and operation of a potential asset management/servicing business (now known as Legacy Asset Management Co. or "LAMCO"), including drafting and negotiating contracts and organizational documents, analyzing regulatory and other legal issues and performing any other general corporate work needed in connection with the formation and operation of that business (the "Additional Corporate Matters").

28. Recitation of each and every item of professional services performed by Simpson Thacher during the Compensation Period would be extremely burdensome. Hence, the following summary highlights the major areas to which Simpson Thacher devoted time and attention during the Compensation Period. This summary is organized in accordance with the individual matters for which Simpson Thacher was retained as special counsel by the Retention Order. Exhibit C provides a detailed breakdown of the time devoted and fees allocable to each matter.

(i) General Corporate and Securities Matters

Simpson Thacher's work with respect to the General Corporate and Securities Matters for the Compensation Period includes:

- Preparing and reviewing various Form 12b-25 filings by LBHI and certain of its finance subsidiaries with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, and discussing the same with the Debtors and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP.
- Providing advice to the Debtors regarding the effect of the bankruptcy filing on certain finance subsidiaries of LBHI and on LBHI's reporting obligations under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.
- Preparing and reviewing documents and coordinating with various parties in connection with the dissolution of certain finance subsidiaries of LBHI.
- Providing advice and assisting with various securities law, employee benefits and tax questions for LBHI.

(ii) Marubeni Matter

Simpson Thacher's work with respect to the Marubeni Matter for the Compensation Period includes:

- Obtaining discovery of Marubeni America Corporation under an order entered by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York in aid of the Japan Civil Action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1782.

- Providing assistance to Thomas Hommel and Eric Albert, in-house counsel to the Debtors, and LBA Y.K.'s Japanese counsel (Oh-Ebashi and Morrison & Foerster) in developing and coordinating litigation strategy in the pending civil action against Marubeni Corporation in the Tokyo, Japan Civil Court, including review and comment on draft briefs.
- Monitoring related criminal, bankruptcy and other legal proceedings currently pending in Japan.
- Gathering and providing information to insurance bond underwriters concerning the foregoing proceedings under a bond policy issued to LBHI, pursuant to which LBA Y.K. is an insured.

(iii) Retention and Fee Matters

Simpson Thacher's work with respect to retention and fee matters for the Compensation Period includes:

- Reviewing time entries and disbursement/expense reports and conforming the same to applicable guidelines and rules in preparation for the monthly bills submitted in these cases.
- Compiling and serving monthly fee statements on all appropriate parties, pursuant to the terms of the Interim Compensation Order.
- Reviewing Simpson Thacher's client records database in order to ascertain whether conflicts of interest have arisen since the Debtors retained Simpson Thacher in accordance with the order authorizing Simpson Thacher's retention.
- Preparing Simpson Thacher's Fourth Interim Fee Application.
- Providing information to and interacting with the Fee Committee regarding fee issues.

(iv) Insurance Matters

Simpson Thacher's work with respect to the Insurance Matters for the Compensation Period includes:

- Providing insurance regulatory advice to the Debtors regarding Syncora's request for additional concessions from the Debtors, the likely effect of a rehabilitation or liquidation proceeding involving Syncora on the previously-agreed master restructuring of Syncora's obligations, and the authority of the Superintendent of Insurance to overturn such restructuring.

(v) Additional Corporate “LAMCO” Matters

Simpson Thacher’s work with respect to the Additional Corporate (“LAMCO”) Matters for the Compensation Period includes:

- Analyzing regulatory and other legal issues and providing advice to the Debtors regarding the formation, operation and regulation of “LAMCO LLC”, an asset management/servicing business.
- Drafting, revising and negotiating contracts and organizational documents of LAMCO LLC, including the Asset Management Agreement, Contribution Agreement and Shared Services Agreement.
- Performing general corporate, intellectual property and other work in connection with the formation and operation of LAMCO LLC.

29. The foregoing professional services performed by Simpson Thacher were necessary and appropriate to the administration of the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases. These services were in the best interests of the Debtors and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problems, issues and tasks involved. The services were performed in an efficient manner.

30. The professional services performed by Simpson Thacher on behalf of the Debtors during the Compensation Period required an aggregate expenditure of 266.30 recorded hours by Simpson Thacher’s partners, counsel, associates and paraprofessionals/other non-attorney timekeepers. During the Compensation Period, Simpson Thacher billed the Debtors for time expended by attorneys based on hourly rates ranging from $455 to $1,000 per hour.<sup>21</sup>

Allowance of compensation in the amount requested would result in a blended hourly attorney billing rate of approximately $611.42 (based on 213.50 recorded hours for attorneys).<sup>22</sup>

31. As set forth in Exhibit B hereto, Simpson Thacher has incurred or disbursed $1,797.51 in expenses<sup>23</sup> in providing professional services to the Debtors during the Compensation Period. These expense amounts are intended to cover direct operating costs, which costs are not incorporated into the Simpson Thacher hourly billing rates. Only clients who actually use services of the types set forth in Exhibit B are separately charged for such services. The effect of including such expenses as part of the hourly billing rates would unfairly impose additional costs upon clients who do not require extensive photocopying, delivery and other services.

32. With respect to standard photocopying expenses, Simpson Thacher has charged the Debtors $.10 or less per page, in accordance with U.S. Trustee policy and the Guidelines.

The Requested Compensation and Expense Reimbursement
Should be Allowed

33. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code reasonable compensation for "actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11

<sup>22</sup> The overall attorney blended rate is based on total attorney fees before application of the discounts set forth in footnote 1.

U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court should consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and
- (E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

34. In awarding compensation pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to professional persons employed under section 327, the Court must take into account, among other factors, the cost of comparable non-bankruptcy services. As the court in In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group Inc. stated:

With due recognition of the historical position of Bankruptcy Courts in compensation matters, we recognize that creditors have agreed to pay rates for retained counsel of their choice because of the needs of the particular case. One could posit other situations or cases where a presumption of prior informed judgment might not be as strong. Here, however, we have a multi-debtor, multi-committee case involving sophisticated creditors who have determined that the rates charged and tasks undertaken by attorneys are appropriate. We should not, and will not, second guess the determination of those parties, who are directed by Congress, under the Bankruptcy Code, to shape and resolve the case, and who are in fact bearing the cost. To do so, of course, would be to continue what Congress specifically intended to stop in 1978: Courts, instead of markets, setting rates, with the inevitable consequence that all the legal specialists required by the debtor or official committees would demur to participate.

133 B.R. 13, 20-21 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991).

35. In the instant case, Simpson Thacher respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation and the expenditures for which it seeks reimbursement in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the orderly administration of the Debtors' estates. Such services and expenditures were necessary to and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors. Simpson Thacher further submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors, their estates and all parties in interest.

36. In sum, approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE Simpson Thacher respectfully requests (i) an allowance of compensation for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period in the amount of $117,433.90 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses Simpson Thacher incurred during the Compensation Period in the amount of $1,797.51; (ii) authorization for the Debtors to pay to Simpson Thacher that portion of the compensation amount not yet paid; (iii) that the allowance of such compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred be without prejudice to Simpson Thacher's right to seek additional compensation for services performed and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period that were not processed at the time of this Application; and (iv) such other and further relief as is just.
